“ Vision and Goal for Leadership of Farmers Associations ”

On April 29, 2010, the Farmer and Nature Net (FNN) of Kampot province organized a workshop in Dangtung district on “Vision and Goal for Leadership of Farmer Associations”. There were 42 participants attended the workshop, whom included Mr. Uon Sophal, national president of FNN, Dr. Yang Saing Koma, president of CEDAC, representatives of saving groups, associations and clusters and from the 7 districts of Kampot province. Objectives of the workshop were to provide opportunity for farmer associations’ representatives and farmer organizations are able to share information, best practical experiences and review the activities that they had done so far. In particular, the workshop gave great chance to farmer organizations’ leaders to learn from each other on best practical leading and developing their community in order to be more self-reliant farmer organizations.

As a result, by the end of workshop, participants were satisfied with the workshop because they could gain a lot of knowledge and experiences of leadership and they determined to apply new knowledge to develop their communities and farmer organizations. To be notice, up to now, Kampot province has got a lot of achievements and has been working in 39 communes out of 87, 132 villages out of 454, and in the 7 districts with total members of 80,776 and has capital of 1,495 million riles. Especially, the province has established Saving Community for Prosperity in the 7 districts (75 villages) with total capital of 104 million riles. Uploaded by Mr NOYKIMHONG, FNN
